

Travis, As You Are

Everyday I wake up alone because
I'm not like all the other boys

And ever since I was young
I had no choice
But it's OK to lead me on
I must admit it's not much fun
To be led on by such a one

As you are
As you are
As you are

And ever since I woke up I felt the net
Was lifting me out of the sea

And even when I'm sinking I feel the need
But it's OK to lead me on
I must admit it's not much fun
To be alone with such a one

As you are
As you are
As you are

And ever since a long time
I felt the rain
And there was no danger
And no more strangers

As you are
