

Travis Tritt, Doesn't The Good Outweigh The Bad

(Travis Tritt/Richard Marx)

I let the little things bring me down
I'm not always fun to be around
And I'm sure sometimes you think I take it all out on you
Well I'm busy doing all I can
Tryin' to earn the right to be your man
When I show a little tenderness is all I really need to do

Well I can't say I'll ever change me
But while I'm tryin' remember baby

It's the way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could've missed
Like all the times we laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die
So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the Good Outweigh the Bad?

You've got a billion things going on
You may feel your fancy all along
'Cause I'm lost in my own circle
When I should be holding out my hand
It would be easy just to walk away
Somehow you find it in your heart to stay

And you make me realize I truly am a lucky man

Girl I know I drive you crazy
Don't give up, remember baby

It's the way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could've missed
Like all the times we laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die
So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the Good Outweigh the Bad?

You and I go walking...down this road
Without you stumble and fall
And if the turn ain't perfectly smooth
It ain't worth taking at all

It's the way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could've missed
Like all the times we laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die
So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the Good Outweigh the Bad?
After all the years we've had
Doesn't the Good Outweigh the Bad?
