

Travis Tritt, Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

(Kenny Wayne Shepherd/Danny Tate)

(c) 1997

Girl, I see you in my dreams
It happens every day and night now
Got me going to extremes
Don't seem to care what's wrong or right now
I'll make you mine someday
Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

You say I'm really not your kind
I guess I look a little rough now
If I could give you everything, girl
Would it ever be enough, child
I'll make you mine someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

It makes you wonder what's going on
When the night rolls in
Something happens that feels so strong

And I just can't pretend

Don't you wonder what's going on, baby
When the night rolls in
Something happens that feels so strong
And it will happen again

You can turn and walk away
But you know you would regret it
If I ever had my way, girl
Do you think you could forget it
It's gonna happen someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

I'm gonna have you someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

Make you mine someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway
