Travis Tritt, Tonight I've Gone Too Far To Turn A

Let's set long stretch of highway from Tulsa to Tennessee You know I had to do it my way May you've got the best of me Sometimes at midnight I hear a voice It echoes in my head, says that I still have a choice

I could get right, get baptized Tomorrow I could probably have a pretty good life But tonight I don't think I'll slow these horses down There's a full moon, I hear the wolf howl And one more drink will pull me to the ground But tonight I've gone too far to turn around

I should have listened to my mama
All I know is to have one more try
Here's your solidest road to comment
And it feels would just fight
I can't hide, and I can't run
I can still see the smoke from barrel of the gun
What's gone is gone, what's done is done

Is there a heaven or a hell Oh, only time will tell Yeah yeah
