

Treaty Oak Revival, Irish Goodbye

Well what have you, been doing in my dreams
It's turning out to be a living nightmare when I sleep
But I've got the upper hand
Cause I was gone before she ever really knew I left
This bar stool's my escape from things that I don't want to see
And if they rear their ugly heads, I'm up and leaving

Think I'm gonna Irish goodbye
Cause I don't have the time to tell you so long
Cause it's just best that I go home
I ain't trying to start a fight, or ruin anyone's time
Leave like a drunk ghost in the night
With another Irish goodbye

Do you think, they'll care if I go home
I'm sure I'll get some shit from them tomorrow I suppose
Well she just walked through the door
And I'm too drunk and I can't deal with that shit anymore
This bar stool's my escape from things that I don't want to see
And she just reared her ugly head, so I'm up and leaving

Think I'm gonna Irish goodbye
Cause I don't have the time to tell you so long
Cause it's just best that I go home
Not trying to start a fight, or ruin anyone's time
Leave like a drunk ghost in the night
With another Irish goodbye

With another Irish Goodbye

I'll pay my tab and call it quits
She still looks good and I don't want no part of this and

Think I'm gonna Irish goodbye
Cause I don't have the time to tell you so long
Cause it's just best that I go home
I ain't trying to start a fight, or ruin anyone's time
Leave like a drunk ghost in the night
With another Irish goodbye

Yeah, with another Irish Goodbye
