

Treble Charger, Business

I know it's not my business
Do I mean anything at all

There's better ways to let me know
Leave a message
Slip a note
In a place I'll never find
Should be careful of what you say
Could all catch up to you someday
Ignore it twice, you know
It won't go away

But every time I listen
I get your words stuck in my head

I know it's not my business
Do I mean anything at all
Cause I've been waiting
For so long
(Repeat)

Someone tell me what went wrong
Am I still getting dragged along
I've got the scars to prove it
You say you're happy and content
But every fight's the main event
Now I'm in the corner spitting blood and spit

But every time I listen
I get your words stuck in my head
And I don't think I see things quite the same as you would want me to I'd never be that cruel

I know it's not my business
Do I mean anything at all
Cause I've been waiting
For so long
(Repeat)

BUt every time I listen
I get your words stuck in my head
For so long (3x)
I know it's not my business
Cause I've been waiting
For so long (2x)
I know its not my business
Do I mean anything
Cause I've been waiting here so long
