

Treble Charger, Cheat Away

Say what you want about it
It just isn't true
Just concerning me and you
Is it any wonder anyway
With nothing else to do
If you see it any other way
First you can go
Later you can fake it
So why make it any harder
Just tell them everything you know

Is it wise to make amends
No surprise
You're among friends

So say goodbye
And find a place you'll keep
Hidden somewhere cold and deep
Don't disappoint us all and cheat away your time

Why does everyone ignore it
It won't go away
It'll get you through the day
Doesn't anybody know by now
There's never anything to say

Is it wise to make amends
No surprise
You're among friends

So say goodbye and find a place you'll keep
Hidden somewhere cold and deep
Don't disappoint us all
And weep for old times

Save a cry
You'll need it in a week
And every holiday retreat
Don't disappoint us all and cheat away your time

I'm looking down a tunnel
But I can't see the light

So say goodbye
And find a place you'll keep
Hidden somewhere cold and deep
Don't disappoint us all and weep for old times

Save a cry
You'll need it in a week
And every holiday retreat
Don't disappoint us all and cheat away your time

Save a cry
And find a place you'll keep (cheat away your time)
Hidden somewhere cold and deep
Cheat away your time
