

Treble Charger, Ever She Flows

The tone you take, I turned off the ring
You mind your dates, I'll fill it in

Please see these once
please see them in
I'll let alone

Ever she flows, like a veil undeciphered
It's me who knows, by the way
It's my mistake

You'll have to wait, I haven't bothered
To offer up debate, I think that's obvious

We see these once
We see them in
I'm not alone

Ever she flows, like a veil undeciphered
It's me who knows, by the way

Let's do this twice
Unlike today start again
It's what you chose in the end

Let's get this straight
I'd like to stay and pretend
It's what you chose in the end
It's what you chose in the end

Ever she flows, like a veil undeciphered
It's me who knows, by the way

Ever she flows, like a veil undeciphered
It's me who knows, by the way...
