

Tree63, Surprise Surprise

Surprise surprise
I've had such a hard time
I was trying to keep my promises
The things I say I just don't do
I need some rescue from myself

A thousand times a thousand lies
I just don't understand
Do you believe me anymore?
I cannot cross the great divide without your hands
Surprise Surprise
All your wonders never cease to amaze me
Even me

I get so nervous I get so tongue-tied
When I'm around you
You see straight through me
My words are empty but you still believe my promises
Mouth full of fire I speak desire and deceitful things
I don't believe me anymore

I cannot cross this great divide your hands
Surprise Surprise
All your wonders never cease to amaze me
Even me

A thousand times a thousand lies
I just don't understand
I don't believe me
