

Trees, X-Communicated

Reaching for the bible like a junkie for the needle Fked up fundamentally, you're
fked up Leaning on your church like a cripple on a crutch
There's a white devil among us
There's a white devil in office
Your blind faith has left unforgiven Wielding your religion as if it were a weapon Fked up fundamentally, you're
fked up
Lining your pockets you deceived a believing flock
There's a white devil among us
walking on the right side White god with blond hair and blue eyes is a god of lies Jesus didn't look like that You know he didn't look like that I hold all you right wing christians in suspicion
There's a white devil among us
There's a white devil in office
Devouring all the stupid fks
