

Trent Monk, Dancing With The Angels

There you are
Questions filling your mind
Reality hits you
As emotions unwind
I know sometimes
It's so hard to understand
Trust me when I tell you
I'm in better hands

(Chorus)

'Cause I'm dancing with the angels
I'm walking in new life
It's like nothing you've ever seen
With the angles
Such beauty fills my eyes
Now that I'm dancing with the angles

Quite whispers of how it used to be
You say, 'How can anyone
Ever take that from me?' (Oh yeah)
We live in a falling world
We cannot deny
But just wait until you see
What I see in my eyes (Oh yeah)

(Chorus)

Only here for such a short time
So stand up, shout out
Sing hallelujah
For one day, you'll see me again
And we'll be dancing with the angles
Walking in new life
Like nothing you've ever seen
With the angels

With the angles yeah
With the angles
(Angles)
