

Trent Monk, Remind Me

These Oklahoma roads sure are bumpy
It's 1 A.M. and I'm so tired and grumpy
I wish I was there
But I've got a few hundred more miles
So I take this chance to do some thinking for a while

Am I living faithfully or chasing my own dreams?
These are the questions on my mind

(Chorus)

So Lord remind me again
Will you help me to see?
Am I doing all of this for you Lord
Or am I doing all this for me?
Lord, am I doing all this for me?

So after a million miles
I stop to rest a while
Before I get up to sing my songs
But the question's still on my brain
Am I doing this in vain?
Lord I just don't want to go wrong

I want to live faithfully
Don't want to chase my own dreams
Let these questions fade away

(Chorus)

Help me listen more
To what You have to say
So I'll follow only
Only in Your ways

So Lord remind me again
Will you help me to see?
Am I doing all of this for you Lord
Or am I doing all this for me?
