

Trevor Morgan, Come What May

If I lose or if I win
If I fall then stand again
In a quiet prayer or lifted voice
Come what may I will rejoice

If I doubt or if I know
In a crowd or all alone
If I gain the world or live in need
Come one day I will be free

Cause all I need is all I have
And all I want is in Your hands
And if this faith is all I see
Well come what may I will believe

Cause all I need is all I have
And all I want is in Your hands
And if this faith is all I see
Well come what may I will believe

In my life or in my death
A new borns cry or final breath
In the holding on or letting go
Well come one day I'm going home

Cause all I need is all I have
And all I want is in Your hands
And if this faith is all I see
Well come what may I will believe
Come what may I will believe
Come what may I will believe
