

Trial Kennedy, Pac Man

You're more to me than anyone
Our kisses aren't for everyone
We're solid although we are young
Our growing old has just begun

I follow everything you want and know
That everything I want you want
And now the pac man challenge has begun
My highest score will not be done
I follow everything you want and know
That's everything i want you want, now

Watch me, I'm calling
I'm falling so high

I take a lesson in watching people go
Though everything i can not comprehend
And simplifying the madness that they send
Don't take for granted of all the time we've spent

Watch me, I'm calling
I'm falling so high

Friendships closer
Tears we savor
Grand emotion, know that Everything's O.K

Everything's O.K &lt;i>(x3)

Watch me, I'm calling
I'm falling so high
