

Trial Kennedy, Present For A Day

How can I? (x4)

I'm about to find
I fell behind
Shy, I'm kind, I find
Karma's a lie

In my past what died
I'm punished for? I try!

How can I?

I'm present for a day, a present for a day
What took so long, that's wrong
It's never gonna be the same

Don't regret, what's been said
Hold your head, don't regret

I feel as swell, a sense that time will pay
I'm present for a day for a day

Gonna get me down
Head is all around
Confident for want it

Stuck and tired too
Everyday is new
Confident for want it
