

Trickside, Beautiful Thing

Sometimes I find myself wondering
How it ever got this way
How'd it get so complicated just living
From day to day

Sometimes I'm happy
Some days are nasty
Sometimes I'm shaking
In the middle of the night

Sometimes I like it
Some days I fight it
So hey, hey, why don't you stay the night?

It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing

Sometimes I find myself wondering
Where it all went wrong
Seems that life was much simpler back in 1981
We didn't know how they made the video Just listen to Bob Marley on the 45

The vinyl sounded tasty
It's still a little hazy
So hey, hey, why don't you stay the night?

It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing

It's all a little more or less
With all the things we second guess
The good times that we had were always hanging on the line
We ain't got time to hate
Cause every day's a celebration
Yeah, yeah, yeah

It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing

I wish that every day could be just like today
I wake up and every day's a celebration
Why reach out for what you're never gonna say
Never gonna be a time like right now, today
Yeah

It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing
It's a beautiful thing

I wish every day could be just like today
Beautiful
Yeah, so beautiful
Yeah, so beautiful
Yeah, so beautiful
