

Tricky, Devotion

So what you gonna do,
It's me that's haunting you
It's me you'll have to face
On judgement day
Are you gonna get releived
And never let you rest in peace
Lookin forward till the end
It's better we die frail
Have to cleanse my soul
Straight away your god
I can't wait until you die
I can't wait to meet you there
Organize the pian
Come riding on the train
Organize the colors
The sweetest and the others
Judgement day...
Can't wait to meet you there
You lie and so do i.
You lie and so do i.
On judgement day
So what you gonna do,
It's me that's haunting you
It's me you'll have to face
Judgement day
Are you gonna get release
I'll never let you rest in peace
Lookin forward till the end
It's better we die frail
Have to cleanse my soul
Straight away your god
I can't wait until you die
I can't wait to meet you there
Organize the hate
Ride on as the train
Organize the colors
The sweetest and the others
Judgement day, is judgement day
You lie and so do i.
You lie and so do i.
Judgement
