

Triinu Kivilaan, Is it me

A new sun is rising high over the sea
A new day is dawning and you're here with me
The distant horizon is far far away
And I know we're free
The seagulls are calling high up in the sky
Ocean waves breaking line after line
Is this paradise right in front our eyes
The world seems to stand still
At this moment in time
This is our eternity

REFREN:

Is it me who's sailing on a boat of dreams
To the harbor of your heart
Is it me who's floating through the morning light
Cause heavens wide open for us
A soft breeze is blowing caressing your hair
Footsteps in the sand will show we were there
The horizon is shining passionate red
Just for you and me
The seagulls are calling high up in the sky
The ocean waves breaking line after line
Is this paradise right in front our eyes
The world seems to stand still
At this moment in time this is our eternity
