Tripping Daisy, Noose

all of the days have been stolen the people around me have all spoken I am the one slipping and sliding when there's a noose looking for you YEAH.....HA HA HA YEAH..... now that the smoke has all flown away the people around me have all floated down stream and I am there choking on bubbles..bubbles.. bubbles.. bubbles when there's a noose looking for you YEAH......HA HA HA YEAH..... now that my skin is all frozen the ants will eat me tell I'm a carcass..bones still laying in forms as I was chosen and all at once the noose is you it's hard to move when the noose is you when all along the noose is you there's no more noose looking for you!
