

Trish Thuy Trang, Every Little Thing

I realize it's no big surprise
I spend my time pretending
All that I do means nothing to you
I tried it all to escape
Alone in my life I drift for awhile
I'm lost out at sea cold and weak

Chorus

Everywhere I go is an empty place
Everything I do washes away
Every little thing in my head
Still remains, never ending

So many days I wasted away
I tried to hide the memories
All that you said plays over again
Keeping me here in this place
Your words cut so deep
It rips into me
I'm bleeding inside in my mind

Chorus* 2x

Every little thing you say...
