

Trish Thuy Trang, My Destiny

Moonlight high above the trees Such a peaceful night it is By myself I'm sitting here the memories are clear of love I never could reveal

There's a gentle swaying breeze while my eyes are filled with tears All the things you couldn't see the love that I still feel I never thought you'd ever leave

Chorus

Silently through all the years my heart aches 'cause you're not here Took for granted you'd be there I never showed I cared and now you're only in my dreams
All the time could never heal What I've lost and what I feel You were taken far away and now it's just too late and fate has sealed my destiny

Sadness cuts my heart so deep What a life it could've been By myself in disbelief with misery and grief this never was supposed to be

Twilight glimmers in the stream Soon another day begins Wishing you were here with me to share new memories and all the secrets that I keep

Chorus
