

Trish Thuy Trang, Tomorrow Will Come

Chorus

As time goes by everyday of my life
How I long for yesterday
Slowly years have gone and come
And I know that you'll wait for me till the end
Looking back on days of the past that we had so long ago
I can't hide these feelings all inside
My love continues to grow

Bridge

Without you here everything is unclear
All that's left of me and you
I'll wait endlessly for you and for us for a love I'll never let go
All my life I'll wait everyday every night for your return
You and I together for all time our flame forever will burn

Oh so faraway I'm holding onto yesterday
I will wait tomorrow tomorrow will come again

Chorus

Oh so faraway I'm holding onto yesterday
I will wait tomorrow tomorrow will come again
