Tristan Prettyman, Interviews

Am I sick of giving the same answers? Are you sick of asking the same questions? If we go 'round and 'round repeating We ain't got no direction

And this system falling apart I can't believe it all started At the heart of the matter of fact I'd put it all in, but I won't get it back

And my love, my love The only thing that is stable When my time is all tied up But my heart is able

So come on
'Cause I won't let you down
And when I come around
I'll be good as new
So don't give up on me so soon
These interviews with who
Can't tell the rumors from the truth
Don't let it get the best of you
And don't give up on me so soon

Did the travel ever catch you in a hurry I can't believe I even began to worry In the big picture, we're all so small We get so caught up, forgetting that we fall Everything about it takes time to grow So just learn to be loose, and let it all go 'Cause the time goes by, so damn fast We try to build it all up but is it ever Gonna last?

And my love, my love The only thing that is stable When my time is all tied up But my heart is able

So come on
'Cause I won't let you down
And when I come around
I'll be good as new
So dont give up on me so soon
These interviews with who
Can't tell the rumors from the truth
Don't let it get the best of you
And don't give up on me so soon
