

Triumph, Headed For Nowhere

I've had a long, long time to think it over now
You're not the one I waited for
You're askin' me to let it go for now
I can't take it anymore

What did you expect?
You've thrown away your self-respect
But I'm not gonna let you take me down, so I'll see you 'round

CHORUS:
Headed for nowhere, I don't want to go there
I know you've been leading me on
Headed for nowhere, I know that you don't care, so
Don't try to drag me along

You never stopped to ask where do we go from here
You've had the answers all along
But now you see the deadline, it's drawing near
And you don't know where you went wrong

You've had it all your way
And I stood beside you, come what may
But I'm not gonna follow you no more, no more

(guitar solo Rik left, Steve right)

I've had a long, long time to think it over now
You're not the one I waited for
You're askin' me to let it go for now
I can't take it anymore

I know you'll never change
Playin' all your games
But I'm not gonna follow you no more, no more
