

Trivium, Blinding Tears Will Break The Skies

One by one they fall; to ensure, liberty
Freedom fighters, raise your fists; to ensure, victory.
One by one they fall; to ensure, liberty
Freedom fighters, raise your fists; to ensure, victory.

This life, is a battle; we will fight, to ensure (to ensure)
They can't take what's in our hearts, it's all that we truly own

They'll try to take (try to take), what's really ours (really ours)
They'll never take (never take), what's in our hearts.
The silence moves everything once held beating;
Into alignment with the skies

This war is on everything that you find comfort in
All I want is for your kind to burn
