Trivium, Fugue (A Revelation)

As I stand at the edge of existence
Nameless shores of infinity
Perpetual unbirth unraveling distance
Clandestine truths unveiled
Inborn imperfections preprogrammed shells
Spawning from the maelstrom
Mechanical drones feeding from thy mother
God machine reproduce
Untruth is this my fate
Coerced my life laid to waste
Untruth is this my fate
Coerced my life laid to waste
All hail execution

As this dream comes to its grim end Blind pray to God to make them men As all hopes crumble truths unveiled The world we know's an abysmal hell Disturbed state of consciousness Incessant black madness Perpetual un-birth unraveling distance Clandestine truths unveiled Untruth is this my fate Coerced my life laid to waste Untruth is this my fate Coerced my life laid to waste All hail execution

Untruth is this my fate Coerced my life laid to waste Untruth is this my fate Coerced my life laid to waste All hail execution
