

Trixter, Play Rough

Well I wake up every morning
And I ask myself
What a day like today might bring
Or tomorrow will I feel the same
Can I break this chain of sorrow
And life of pain

Nobody told me that life was so unkind
And I'm slowly goin' under
But you've gotta be strong
If you wanna hold on

Play rough
Cause love ain't no game
Stand tough
Cause love ain't no game

Enough is enough
And I'm growing up fast
Cause I'm movin' like a bullet
Gonna take my best shot

Nobody told life was so unkind
But I found out on my own
But you've gotta be strong
If you wanna hold on

Play rough
Cause love ain't no game
You gotta stand tough
Cause love ain't no game

Play rough
Cause love ain't no game
Well you gotta stand tough
Cause love ain't no game

Nobody told life was so unkind
But now I finally know
That you gotta be strong
If you wanna hold on

Play rough
Cause love ain't no game
You gotta stand tough
Cause love ain't no game

Play rough
Cause love ain't no game
You gotta stand tough
Cause love ain't no game
