

Trnqvist Rebecka, Larger Than Life

(Trnqvist/Svenre/Markus Wikstrm)

When I go I'm going in the wrong direction and I know you think you know this tune Leaving you won't give me no resurrection and you're sure I'll be back soon
Since this match is made in heaven, God forgive me,
For sometimes, though my love is true,
I can doubt the words you never cease to feed me
I should submit too me and you
you say...

It's larger than life
Greater than anything you knew
Larger than life
Greater than all you put me through
Larger than life
Greater than anything I knew
All we ever knew
In your eyes there is the strangest fire burning
I'm not certain I can see the cause
But I do admit I sometimes have a yearning
To obey your self-made laws

you say...
It's larger than life
Greater than anything you knew
Larger than life
Greater than all you put me through
Larger than life
Greater than anything I knew
All we ever knew

Don't sweet talk me
It won't make this old thing new
Don't you ever sweet talk me
Let me see the reality and all we ever knew
You say...
