

Trouble, The Beginning

see the face in the mirror of your dreams emptiness is all that's left sadness in your eyes take off your disguise how much longer can you hide the pain

Turn around look at what you see the world is fading away sadness is everywhere and living in despair how much longer can you stand the pain there is a place that lives within our minds a world of human fantasy reach for the stars never look back again you've got nothing to lose everything to gain fly with me and what you see will be look upon your rainbow dream a dream

don't let it slip away in your hands lies the birth of a new day.

when I look into your eyes the world is there for me and the more I look inside the more there is to see sun shines all around me the light knows that I'm free make believe I'm everywhere believe you're here with me.

In the beginning... All is forgiven
In the beginning... Time to start living
Oh yeah
