

Tryad, I See

In the night
I feel so right
You reach out
And squeeze me tight
I can hardly breathe

I feel
This feeling over me
I've got to believe
It's meant to be

Talk to me boy
I can feel you coming
Even when you're distant
I know you want me

Talk to me boy
I can feel you now
Know just what
You're thinking
Because I'm thinking it too

Sit and listen
Notice how you turn
Yourself away
It's how you are
It's what you say

Why won't you feel me
I want you to be me
Up into your world unknown

Everything
