

Tuatha De Danann, Believe, It's True!

Into the rhythm of the drum
Dancing in the woods
And look around the magical Faeries
Old green dwarves and red mushrooms

Try to believe and understand,
Theres nothing you can do, believe: its true
A river of wine refresh your eyes,
Calling us to rock our souls

Into the rhythm of the drum
Dancing in the woods
And look around the magical Faeries
Old green dwarves and red mushrooms

Believe: its true! Believe: its true!
Old green dwarves and red mushrooms

Even you still laughing at me
You think that Im the Foll
The fool is you!
So I can tell: I leave my words,
Theres nothing you can do,
Believe: its true!
