

Tuatha De Danann, The Bards Of The Infinity

From the past weve come
Through the raibows gate
Beyond the sundown
Across the seas waves

Singing songs with the flowers
Flying with the blue birds
We will shine again

Were the bards of infinity
From the past weve come
Through the raibows gate
Across the seas wave

Till the land of immortals
Upon crows well fly
Singing with the faeries
Were the magic bards

Were the sons of twilight
We are guide by moons hand
With our songs well put the
Magic in the air

With our magic harp
We will face all of them
So youll see the power
Of the clouds son

Now we must win the wall of times
With the queen of the witches
Upon her crows well fly
Try to understand
We will shine again...
