

Turbonegro, Blow Me (Like The Wind)

C'mon!
You think I'm fat?
But it's an optical illusion.
You know I'm hot!
It's just my chemical solution.
So when you hear my mighty call,
You better
Hoist your sails and pray for the gods of wind...
To blow us all!
So blow me!
Blow me like the wind!
Blow me!
Blow me once again!
Tonight I'm feeling tops
On the stairs of evolution.
I call the shots
In my genetic revolution.
Cause I've been waiting,
Waiting night and day,
Just something good might blow
Might blow my way.
So blow me!
Blow me like the wind!
Blow me!
Blow me once again!
If I gave you a turn on
Would you raise my antenna?
If I gave you a dime
Would you blow my paradigm?
If I gave you my candle
Would it be too hot to handle?
If I ran for election
Would you support my erection?
So blow me!
Blow me like the wind!
Blow me!
Blow me once again!
