

Turbonegro, Sell Your Body (To The Night)

Everybody!
Sell your body...
To the night!
Human flesh!
Working out in the weight room
You're trying to make it pay.
Sweating for a future
But it's such a long night anyway...
Out on the dancefloor,
Working up a sweat,
Your body's their amusement park.
Now enter the night and see what you can get, so...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
To the night!
Hey boy! You wanna get ahead?
You gotta give some head!
Might end up dead instead!
Hey boy! But you can make it right...
So fix your hair alright!
And welcome to the night!
Down on the corner
You show'em what you got.
Your body's their little candy store,
They got their eyes on you.
So you gotta keep it hot, so...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
To the night!
Everywhere!
Everybody!
Fix your hair and sell your body...
To the night!
When the cats crawl out to mate at night -
You'll be there...
You'll be there...
You can't deny it!
It's such a riot!
Don't knock it 'til you try it!
Sell your body to the night!
You've got nowhere to go,
Nowhere to go,
Nowhere to go, so...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
Everybody!
Sell your body...
To the night!
Everywhere!
Everybody!
Fix your hair and sell your body...
To the night!
