

Turin Brakes, Ghost

you are the ghost
that I miss the most I keep on waiting and waiting and waiting and I don't mind how long it takes how long I wait

'cause you're my baby my baby my baby so I don't mind how long it takes
for you
to come to
to come to
to come to, oh, oh oh

I am the ghost
that you need the most
I keep on waiting and waiting and waiting
and I don't know why it takes so long
to make my way home

but you're my baby my baby my baby so I don't mind
how long
it takes
for you
to come to
to come to, oh, oh, oh

I don't mind
how long
it takes
for you
