

Turner Core, Alpha Id

I'm finding out patience doesn't grow on trees.
You're welcome here if you're welcoming me!
Why's it so hard to give out your trust, I can barely trust myself.
Come save me! Come find me!
The inner system is crumbling down more and more every minute.
It's dying! It's dying!
It's not too late, there's a beginning to everything.
Where's my Alpha ID!?

""Sometimes in my mind
""I just can't get things straight,
""And sometimes in my life
""There's a failure to communicate.
""What can I do
""With this life
""To make me feel
""More than alive?
""What can I say
""To send this void away?
""What can I do
' "To bring my conscience to play?

' "" "I searched forever,
' "" "Searching for they key!
' "" "Where can I get ' "" "My Alpha Identity!?

Empty thoughts fill the space between,
Lives your life, haunts your dreams.
It's nothing! Nothing to me!
I've always been the one
Who can't agree.
I'm sorry you feel this way!
I find all this hard to believe.
It's failing! It's failing!
Is it your nature not to care?
Tell me.
Where's my alpha id?!
