

Tweaker, Truth Is

Oh, baby you're everything to me, she said
Oh, baby you're the best thing that I ever had
Oh, baby you're everything to me, she said
Oh, baby you're the reason why I'm never bad

She said,
I'm tellin' lies again
She didn't really care
I'm tellin' lies again
She did it every where
I'm tellin' lies again
She didn't ever need
Oh, baby you're everything, everything to me

Oh, baby you're so easy to believe, she said
Oh, baby you're the one thing that I never had
Oh, baby you're so easy to believe, she said
Oh, baby you're the reason why I'm never sad

Yeah, baby, you're so easy to believe

She said,
I'm tellin' lies again
She didn't really call
I'm tellin' lies again
She did it everyone
I'm tellin' lies again
She didn't ever leave
Oh, baby, you're so easy, so easy to believe

Yeah, baby, you're everything to me, she said

I never remember if I'm him or her or me
Do I wake up in or out of this
As them or you or we
I never remembered who I wondered when I was
If they ever were
The why or where
The how and what was lost

Truth is, I'm never the same
Truth is, I'm never to blame
Truth is, I'm never in pain
Truth is, I'm lying, I'm lying, I'm lying, I'm lying

Truth is, I'm lying again
