

Twelfth Night, Shame

(Andy Sears)

pray--

dream breaker

faith healer--

shame--who can excuse you shame--we don't include you shame--and if we choose to shame--we will accuse you shame--who'll understand you when it comes to the day-- who'll rise to save you shame--when you try to explain who'll entertain you

shame will reject you doctor reports of a social disease--

"it can't afford all the caring it needs";-- cover yourself with emotional sham shame made your bed

now you live and lie--

live a lie

when you fall in shame

who'll understand you

who will respect you--

I'll be there

when you fall

when you fall in shame!

--shame

when you fall in shame!

I'll be there

when you fall

when you fall in shame!

I'll be there

when you fall

when you fall in shame!

--shame
