

Twelve Gauge Valentine, An Iceberg Waiting On

You've just reached the end of your rope there's no place to turn there's no place to hide I'd bet you love it

you're running away from this outstanding offer..???

this will cost you everything

I said we never forget.. no, nothing..

this don't look good!

your fate is in our hands you're not going to get out of this one death has arrived, this just dont seem right..

there's no place to turn
there's no place to hide
I'd bet you love it

I said we never forget
