

Twin-A, Sugar Cane

I've learned not to count on anyone
That way disappointment never comes
But I count the days since you went away

Came into my window with the sun
Beat upon my body like a drum
And it brought down rain
When you went away

Oh oh
Look what you did to me
Oh oh
I'm not the same
Oh oh
Look what you did to me
I'm not the same
I go to bed hungry now
Craving your sugar cane

It's been so long since I have been without (since I touched you)
I swear I can taste you in my mouth
(I can taste you)
That hunger kiss
I feed for night and day

Oh oh
Look what you did to me
Oh oh
I'm not the same
Oh oh
Look what you did to me
I'm not the same
I go to bed hungry now
Craving your sugar cane

Cause I can not recall a time
A time when I was perfectly fine
A time when I felt perfectly fine
Not now

Oh oh
Look what you did to me
Oh oh
I'm not the same
Oh oh
Look what you did to me
I'm not the same
I go to bed hungry now
Craving your sugar cane
