

Two Thirty Eight, Step Into The Light

Don't be afraid. Step into the light.
Everyone here is a loser tonight.
We're all voting for that second chance.
I never learned that stupid dance.

I don't really want to change.
(No, I don't want to change.)

Come as you are, step into the light.
We're all prisoners here,
locked up by our minds.
Don't be afraid. Come sinner or saint everyone here is a human tonight.
