

Twoface, The Plan

I am a joke
Why don't you laugh
I'm the drama in my own chaotic roleplay
I am the fool
That sings on the roof
Without a song to sing
Though it sounds all dramatic

All I long for is just a simple song
With all the sounds of the rude world

I'm calling the times
That we left behind
No one should dream their time away

I lost a lifetime
Is it here the magic ends
Or do I need a simple plan

You're an angel
And I feel you
Let me sing your song
Let me drown in your tears

Angel
