

Ty Herndon, Somewhere A Lover

You were the first one I ever hurt for

I was afraid of holdin' your hand

Out on a back road I told you I love you

You made a country boy feel like a man

Chorus

Somewhere a lover lives for a moment

When he can touch her and give her his heart

Somewhere a strong man waits for a woman

And nothing in this world can keep them apart

I laughed at the way you were, so funny to look back now

Oh you were all, all I dreamed of

Sometimes I wonder if we would have lasted

If I was a fool to ever give you up

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Oh you still on my mind on a thin shadowed ledge

No matter what I do or say

But the river of time can take off the edge

But they can't take the rock away

Repeat Chorus

Repeat Chorus - fading out
