

Tyler James, Single Tear

Can't find the pieces of my broken heart,
Can't see the light,
I'm fading into dark.
I fake the hurt I go to everyday,
Like I'm OK
Like I'm OK.
Every moment since you left I swear
My World start turning
Every picture of my heart of you
Just keeps on burning.

I haven't cried a single tear whole year
I don't remember,
Is it September?
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
But I confess though feels like disaster,
And things will never be the same.
And all the hurt still remains.
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
Become the master of million fears.
Haven't cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear, cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear.

Living without you don't know where to start,
Can't find the will this whole will fall apart.
Living the lie too much everyday
I'll be OK, I'll be OK.
Lost in loneliness can't find my way
I keep on falling
In the emptiness I swear I still keep you calling.

I haven't cried a single tear whole year
I don't remember,
Is it September?
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
But I confess though feels like disaster,
And things will never be the same.
And all the hurt still remains.
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
Become the master of million fears.
Haven't cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear, cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear.

(Ooooh ooooh ooooh
Oooooh ooooh ooooh).

I haven't cried a single tear whole year
I don't remember,
Is it September?
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
But I confess though feels like disaster,
And things will never be the same.
And all the hurt still remains.
I haven't cried a single tear whole year
Become the master of million fears.
Haven't cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear, cried a single tear.
Ain't cried a single tear.
