

Typecast, Emmanuel

It's so dark
I can't see a thing
I need your help
I need you here
Because you're my light
You're my strength
Don't let me go, swear
Don't let me go
I'm so scared
Hold my hands
Keep me from falling
You're my only hope tonight
To save me from myself

Because I don't know if I can go on without you
You're my only cure tonight
Hold me now so I'll be safe
It's so cold
Disoriented sense again
But it feels like home
I think I'm home
Because you're my warmth
You're my strength
Don't let me go, swear
Don't let me go
I'm so weak
Dry my tears keep it from falling
