

Tyrese, Chapter Less Than

Speaking:

To Africa & 126 let's go

I come here a lot more, I'm grateful, for my freedom

Not only freedom, physically, but freedom of the mind

Freedom of my spirit, in Jesus' name, Amen

Don't leave me out cos I'm black

Don't leave me out cos I'm white

Leave me cos I'm treating you wrong and I'm supposed 2 treat you right (ohh)

Don't leave me out in the cold or treat me like I'm a 12 years old

Visitor, I'm from Africa and I can stand where ever I want (ohh)

I can see it so clearly, soon as I stare in your eyes

Yeah you're making more money than me, that don't me I'm not qualified

I wake up every morning, smile on my face

Thanking the lord for giving me another opportunity to feed my family

First I try to come up, then you hold me down

First u let me in, then you kick me out

Can somebody tell me, what is a man to do?

Everyday I day I pray, to the man above

If u stop the hate and show me sum love

Turn to chapter 126

All she wanted for us was

Freedom, Freedom, Freedom, oh freedom (Don't want to)

Freedom, Freedom, Freedom, oh freedom (Mentally and spiritually)

Speaking:

We thank men all over and everyone who's contributed to the freedom of Africa

Without you, where will we be? Come on

Soon as you're try to say no, I'm coming right back 2 say yes

You're giving me fuel to my fire another reason to pump my fist (ohh)

You make so much money off us, in return you don't show us no love

With movies like ??? they won't be kids in all the streets

I wake up every morning, smile on ma face

Thanking the lord for giving me another opportunity to feed my family (first I)

First I try to come up, then you hold me down

First u let me in, then you kick me out

Can somebody tell me, what is a man to do?

Everyday I day I pray, to the man above

If u stop the hate and show me sum love

Turn to chapter 126

Cos all she ever wanted for us was

If you wanna be free, sing along with me

South Africa, Namibia, Kenya, Ethiopia, Ghana, Zambia,

Feel your pain, feel your pain

Pyramids of Egypt, show some love, that's the way to live (Freedom)

Hold your head up cos Apartheid is over, yes it is

We can go where we want to go now

Free to go where I wanna go

Free to say what I wanna say

Free to have what I wanna have, I want, I want

Free to live where I wanna live

Free to give what I wanna give

Free to go where I wanna go, I want, I want
Free to have a baby boy
Free to have a baby girl
Free to raise a family
Free to travel the world
