

Ugly Kid Joe, Kill The Pain

Setting is the sun
Rising is the moon
Just like the fool
Never knows when to run
Hating is the love
Trampled are the wounded
And always too soon
It comes to an end

Let me kill the pain
Let me be the reason you're falling again
Let me kill the pain
Let me be the one that keeps calling your name
'Cause beautiful we lay here under the sky
Watching the loneliness die

Helpless are the dreams
No one ever hopes for
Needless is the world
No one ever cared for
Hiding from the sun
Dying are the days
Always on the run
Endless is the waiting

Let me kill the pain
Let me be the reason you're falling again
Let me kill the pain
Let me be the one that keeps calling your name
'Cause beautiful we lay here under the sky
Watching the loneliness die

It's all just a waste of time
Well I love the way you die

Let me kill the pain
Let me be the reason you're falling again
Let me kill the pain
Let me be the one that keeps calling your name
'Cause beautiful we lay here under the sky

'Cause beautiful we lay here under the sky
Watching the loneliness die

Helpless are the dreams
No one ever hopes for
Needless is the world
It's everything is paid for
