

Ultima Thule, Psycho killer

There is a killer, on the loose again
The hunt is on but question: end, when?
It must be violence against violence
That's our only chance for defense
Do you want your girlfriend to be killed just because a murder feels thrilled?

Get that psycho killer
String him up in a lane
Killer, killer - we want him dead!

It's not enough to lock him up in jail
I know this want make him loose his trail
Sunday press a killer is the headline
All bloody details, no trace, he feels fine
If we don't get him caught
Then this could be our last thought

Get that psycho killer
String him up in a lane
Killer, killer - we want him dead!
