I have always found that Angels have the vanity to speak of themselves as the only wise; this they

Thus Swedenborg boasts that what he writes is new; tho' it is only the Contents or Index of already

A man carried a monkey about for a shew, & because he was a little wiser than the monkey, g

Now hear a plain fact: Swedenborg has not written one new truth:

Now hear another: he has written all the old falshoods.

And now hear the reason. He conversed with Angels who are all religious, & conversed not w

Thus Swedenborgs writings are a recapitulation of all superficial, opinions, and an analysis of the m

Have now another plain fact: Any man of mechanical talents may from the writings of Paracelsus o

But when he has done this, let him not say that he knows better than his master, for he only holds a
