

Umbrellas, Idle And Waiting

Play that chord one more time you know I'm waiting it's the quiet that makes the song no, it's the absence of light that makes it play that chord and I'll fall asleep I will, I will but my heart is racing and my mind won't shut down

cause I'm singing, we're singing laughter fills the room and pulls towards another night's close and I'll fall asleep

everyone is idle and waiting I'm waiting, I'm waiting
